

Congratulations, Anchor Islanders!

You have successfully made it through the spring semester! This has been an unusual semester, one filled with unique challenges and unexpected obstacles. I am so proud of you for continuing to do your best; to try repeatedly; to do what you needed to do to take care of yourself; and to make it through each and every day. I am also extremely proud of you for focusing on your education during this time. I know it hasn't been easy. I realize there have been so many other distractions. But I also know, as stated in the words of the legendary B. B. King, "Education is the one thing that no one can take from you." (B. B. King: American Blues guitarist, songwriter)

I wish you the best of luck on your finals and look forward to the day when we can meet again on campus!
